

Spark Studio is your own personal creative workspace, powered by AI.
And it's included with IXL!

Spark Studio has a wide variety of tools to help you create fresh new materials for your classroom, and you'll be surprised how quick, easy, and fun it is to use.

Here's how to get started:

- 1 Visit Spark Studio and select a tool from the library, like the Jeopardy review game

- 2 Enter your topic and grade level

A screenshot of the 'Jeopardy review game' creation form. The title 'Jeopardy review game' is at the top, followed by the subtitle 'Create a jeopardy-style game to help students practice or review any topic!'. The form has two main sections: 'What are you teaching?' with a text input field containing 'Force and Motion', and 'Grade level of your students' with a grid of buttons for grades Pre-K through 12. The grade '3' is selected. A 'Generate' button is at the bottom.

Jeopardy review game

Create a jeopardy-style game to help students practice or review any topic!

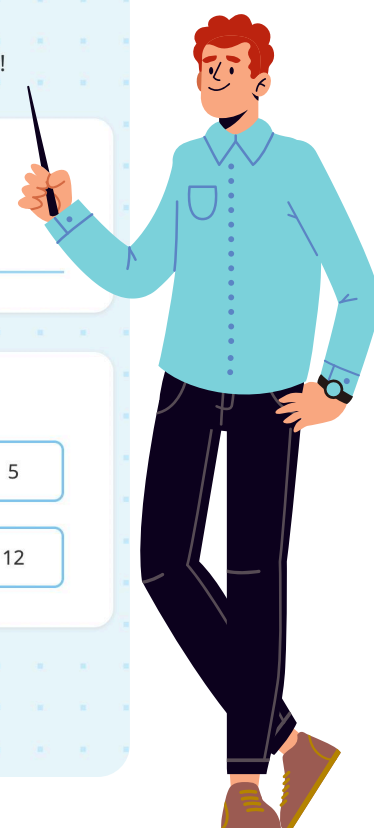

What are you teaching?

Force and Motion

Grade level of your students

Pre-K	K	1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10	11	12

Generate

3 Watch your material come to life

Jeopardy: Force and Motion

Launch game

Types of Forces

$100: This is a push or a pull on an object.
What is a force?

$200: This force pulls objects toward the ground.
What is gravity?

$300: The force that slows down objects when they rub together.
What is friction?

$400: This force can attract or repel certain metals.
What is magnetism?

$500: The force that keeps planets moving around the Sun.
What is gravity?

You can also regenerate or edit the material to tailor it to your exact needs.

4 Launch the game to immediately use it in your classroom!

Jeopardy: Force and Motion

Types of Forces	Motion	Simple Machines	Gravity and Weight	Pushes and Pulls
$100	$100	$100	$100	$100
$200	$200	$200	$200	$200
$300	$300	$300	$300	$300
$400	$400	$400	$400	$400
$500	$500	$500	$500	$500

5 Easily create related resources

Follow-up actions

Generate a crossword puzzle about the same topic

Create a word scramble worksheet about the same topic

Generate an activity choice board about the same topic

Translate the Jeopardy game into any language

Step into the studio to spark new ideas for your lessons, and leave invigorated with a full batch of materials—including lesson plans, fun activities, worksheets, scaffolding ideas, translated resources, and so much more.

